16. Indemnification

You agree to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the SOCIETY and its affiliates, Members, members of the Governing Body, officers, employees, volunteers, agents, predecessors, successors, and assigns, from and against any and all claims, proceedings, damages, injuries, liabilities, losses, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation expenses) relating to or arising from Your use of the Site, any breach by You of this Agreement, or any other matter for which You are responsible hereunder or under law.

17. Waiver

Failure to insist on strict performance of any of the Terms and Conditions of this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of any subsequent default or failure of performance. No waiver by the SOCIETY of any right under these Terms and Conditions will be deemed to be either a waiver of any other right or provision or a waiver of that same right or provision at any other time.

18. Governing Law & Dispute Resolution

(a) These Terms and Conditions shall be construed and governed by the internal laws of the state of Missouri (irrespective of its choice of law principles), and any controversy, conflict, dispute, or claim under statutory or common law arising out of or relating to these Terms and Conditions, or the breach thereof, or access or use of this Site shall also be construed and governed thereby.

(b) Information Dispute Resolution. Either party asserting a dispute shall first try, in good faith, to resolve it by providing written notice to the other party describing the facts and circumstances (including any relevant documentation) and allowing the receiving party sixty (60) days in which to respond. Both You and SOCIETY agree that this dispute resolution procedure is a condition precedent which must be satisfied before initiating any small claims action or arbitration against the other party.

(c) Small Claims Matters. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, You and SOCIETY mutually agree that any claim under statutory or common law arising out of or relating to this Agreement that would qualify as a civil case under Missouri state law, whether tort or contract, for a small claims action for recovery of money where the amount in controversy does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), exclusive of interest or costs, may, at the sole discretion of the party making the claim, be settled by the proper small claims court in the county of SOCIETY's principal place of business in the state of Missouri. For purposes of small claims matters, both parties agree that the facts giving rise to the cause of action concerning any dispute related to this Agreement took place in the county of SOCIETY's principal place of business in the state of Missouri. No judgment of a small claims court shall be a lien on real estate.

(d) Agreement to Arbitrate. If a party does not elect to use the small claims option of dispute resolution in accordance with Section (c) above concerning small claims matters, or for any non-small claims matter, You and SOCIETY mutually agree that any such controversy, conflict, dispute, or claim under statutory or common law arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof shall be settled by binding arbitration; and this agreement to arbitrate shall be valid, irrevocable, and enforceable, except when there exists sufficient cause at law or in equity for the avoidance of written contracts generally; and this agreement to arbitrate shall survive expiration, termination, or rescission of this Agreement; and judgment on the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

(e) Arbitration Process. You and SOCIETY mutually agree that SOCIETY shall be responsible for choosing a single arbitrator; arbitration shall be conducted in county of SOCIETY's principal place of business in the state of Missouri; and the parties shall bear their own individual expenses for initiating arbitration but that the prevailing party in any arbitration concerning this Agreement shall be entitled to arbitrator's expenses and fees, together with other expenses, not including counsel fees, incurred in the conduct of the arbitration, which shall be paid as provided in the award. You and SOCIETY mutually agree that the arbitrator shall not have any authority to change any term(s), provision(s), condition(s), responsibility(s), or obligation(s) of this Agreement by additions, subtractions, or alterations of the Agreement's term(s), provision(s), condition(s), responsibility(s), or obligation(s) nor shall the arbitrator exceed his or her authority either by determining a matter not submitted to him or her or by not following the rules established by this Agreement concerning arbitration. You and SOCIETY mutually agree that the arbitrator shall appoint a time and place for the hearing and cause notification to the parties to be served personally or by registered mail not less than seven (7) days before the hearing and that any appearance at the hearing waives such notice. You and SOCIETY mutually agree that the arbitrator may adjourn the hearing from time to time as necessary and, on request of a party and for good cause or upon the arbitrator's own motion, may postpone the hearing to a time not later than the date fixed by this Agreement for making the award unless the parties mutually consent to a later date. The arbitrator may hear and determine the controversy upon the evidence produced notwithstanding the failure of a party duly notified to appear and, if necessary, a court on application may direct the arbitrator to proceed promptly with the hearing and determination of the controversy. You and SOCIETY further mutually agree that the parties are entitled to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy, to cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing, and to be represented by counsel at the hearing, but that exercise of any of these entitlements shall not obstruct or unreasonably delay the arbitration process. All parties agree that, subject to the provisions and conditions by this Agreement for vacating an award, the decision of the arbitrator will be binding and is the exclusive remedy.

(f) Arbitration Award. You and SOCIETY mutually agree that the award shall be made within 30 days after the hearing concludes; that the award shall be in writing and signed by the arbitrator; that the arbitrator shall deliver a copy to each party personally or by registered mail; that the award may include monetary relief and/or an order for specific performance; that although the award need not address individually each point of the submission, the arbitrator must consider each issue submitted for the award to be adequate and the award must resolve the entire controversy submitted; and that the parties may apply to the court for confirmation of the arbitrator's award.

(g) Conditions for Vacating an Award. You and SOCIETY mutually agree that upon application of a party, the court may vacate an award for the following reasons:

(1) The award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means. However: A mistake of law or a mistake of fact, gross errors by the arbitrator, and award amounts in excess of what a court would have awarded are not sufficient reasons, per se, to vacate an award. To warrant vacating an award for fraud, the fraud must appear on the face of the award.

(2) There was evident partiality by an arbitrator appointed as a neutral or corruption in the arbitrator or misconduct by the arbitrator prejudicing the rights of any party. However: An arbitrator's relationship with a party, per se, shall not be evidence of partiality. Because it is not unusual for the arbitrator to know one or both of the parties or to have business contacts with them, the dividing line is where the relationship is significant enough to suggest that it would interfere with the arbitrator's fairness. And although the arbitrator's conduct of a hearing also may be evidence of partiality if that conduct reveals the requisite bias, the party charging partiality must allege specific acts of the arbitrator which are evidence of the bias. Where the party has knowledge of facts indicating partiality but does not challenge the arbitrator's partiality until after the award is issued, the challenge will be waived. To mitigate against the natural tendency to see partiality in an arbitrator only after an adverse award, the party must ask the arbitrator to disqualify him- or herself as soon as there is evidence of partiality.

(3) The arbitrator exceeded his or her power or authority. The arbitrator exceeds his or her power or authority when he or she determines a matter not submitted to him or her; fails to follow the rules for arbitration established by this Agreement; fails to resolve each issue submitted; allows a third party to participate in a hearing when that party was not a party to the arbitration agreement; or disregards the parties' directives or makes an award not contemplated by the agreement. However: Exercising discretion in the making and implementing of procedural and evidentiary rules for arbitration (insofar as these discretionary rules by the arbitrator do not replace or displace the rules for arbitration established by this Agreement nor do these discretionary rules grossly deviate from the standard of practice according to the state bar) is not, without evidence of other violations as enumerated in this Agreement or by law, exceeding power or authority.

(4) The arbitrator refused to postpone the hearing upon sufficient cause being shown therefore or refused to hear evidence material to the controversy or otherwise so conducted the hearing contrary to the rules of this Agreement or the law as to prejudice substantially the rights of a party.

(h) Arbitration to be Individualized. You and SOCIETY mutually agree that any and all arbitration shall be individualized rather than class or collective action, and any controversy, conflict, dispute, or claim under statutory or common law arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof shall be heard in separate proceedings.

(i) Dispute Resolution to be Regarded as Settlement Negotiations and Considered Confidential. You and SOCIETY mutually agree that any dispute resolution proceedings, informal or formal, shall be regarded as settlement negotiations and any communication relating to the subject matter of such disputes made during the resolution process by any participant, arbitrator, conciliator, mediator, or any other person present at the dispute resolution shall be a confidential communication. You and SOCIETY further mutually agree that no admission, representation, statement, or other confidential communication made in setting up or conducting such proceedings not otherwise discoverable or obtainable shall be admissible as evidence or subject to discovery and no person who serves as an arbitrator, conciliator, or mediator, nor any agent or employee of that person, shall be subpoenaed or otherwise compelled to disclose any matter disclosed in the process of setting up or conducting the informal dispute resolution, arbitration, or other mediation.

(j) Jury Waiver. If the aforementioned agreement to arbitrate or its application is invalid or unenforceable, You and SOCIETY mutually agree that any legal proceeding with respect to any dispute will be tried in a court of competent jurisdiction by a judge without a jury in the county of SOCIETY's principal place of business in the state of Missouri. You and SOCIETY mutually agree to waive any right to a jury trial in any such proceeding.

(k) Equitable Relief. The informal dispute resolution, small claims matters, and arbitration agreement sections notwithstanding, You agree that in the event of any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement by You, SOCIETY may obtain, in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available, such equitable relief as may be necessary to protect SOCIETY against any such breach or threatened breach.

(l) This Site is controlled and operated by the SOCIETY from its offices within the United States. The SOCIETY makes no representation that materials on the Site are appropriate or available for use in other locations, and access to them from territories where any of the contents of this Site are illegal is prohibited. If You choose to access this Site from other locations, You do so on Your own volition and are responsible for compliance with any applicable local laws.

19. Costs & Attorneys' Fees

In accordance with Article 18 relating to Dispute Resolution abovementioned, in any action to enforce this Agreement, the prevailing party will be entitled to reasonable costs and attorneys' fees.

20. Severability

If any part of these Terms and Conditions is determined to be invalid or unenforceable pursuant to applicable law including, but not limited to, the warranty disclaimers and the liability limitations set forth above, then the invalid or unenforceable provision will be deemed superseded by a valid, enforceable provision that most clearly matches the intent of the original provision and the remainder of these Terms and Conditions shall continue in effect.

21. No Agency

No joint venture, partnership, employment, or agency relationship exists between You and the SOCIETY as a result of this Agreement or Your utilization of this Site.

22. No Rights or Benefits

This Agreement is not intended to, and does not, create any right, benefit, trust, or responsibility, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law or in equity by any party against the SOCIETY, its parent, subsidiaries, and affiliates, or its respective agents, members, associates, officers, directors, employees, volunteers, representatives, or any other person.

23. Entire Agreement/Reservation of Rights

These Terms and Conditions and the SOCIETY's Privacy Policy, which are hereby incorporated as if set forth fully in these Terms and Conditions, represent the entire agreement between You and the SOCIETY with respect to Your use of the material available on or through this Site, and it supersedes all prior or contemporaneous communications and proposals, whether electronic, oral, or written between You and the SOCIETY with respect to this Site. Any rights not expressly granted herein are reserved.
